MEETINGS & CONFERENCES

WHY REVELSTOKE.

Revelstoke has hosted meetings long before David Thompson crossed Athabasca Pass and spent the winter at Boat Encampment. If you're looking to pair your in-person slideshows with the dynamism of a mountain adventure getaway, book your meeting or conference here. We have all the cozy beds you could want plus access to National Parks, lift-served skiing and biking, and group-friendly activities for all seasons - without mega crowds. Need more reasons?

A World-Class Destination:

Boost your attendance by choosing a vacation-worthy location. We've been called "Canada's Best Kept Secret" and a "Top 10 Emerging Ski Town" by National Geographic.

Boutique Lodging:

Rent out a lodge and private chef for building close connections, or go straight to the action with on-mountain lodging at Revelstoke Mountain Resort.

Better With Friends:

Planning group travel to Revelstoke actually makes the trip even easier - arrange a private transfer from Calgary or Kelowna airports, and put group lessons together for mountain biking, skiing, or snowshoeing on your schedule.

GETTING HERE.

Revelstoke is nestled between the Selkirk and Monashee mountain ranges making for one of the most breathtaking drives (in a good way) that Canada has to offer. Winter tires are mandatory October-April!
