

REVELSTOKE.

OFF THE BEATEN PATH.

Waterfalls

There are many sets of waterfalls in close proximity to Revelstoke which require very little effort and awesome rewards. Begbie Falls, Sutherland Falls, and Bear Creek Falls should definitely be on the hit list! Many nearby waterfalls are accessible by only a short walk, and make for incredible photo opportunities. Crazy Creek has a suspension bridge above a waterfall on HWY1.

Hot Springs

Head south on Highway 23, cross the ferry, and you'll have your choice of hot springs to visit. Travelers with a taste for adventure will enjoy Halfway Hot Springs, a recreation site accessible by a logging road and a short (but steep!) hike. Halcyon Hot Springs offers a more accessible experience,. It's a developed hot spring with great views over Upper Arrow Lake. There are also hot pools on HWY1 at Canyon Hot Springs and Crazy Creek Resort.

Highway 23 North

If 150 kilometres of open highway, pristine creeks, and a gorgeous lake surrounded by mountains appeals to you, then making the trip up Highway 23 North towards the Mica Dam will be an unforgettable experience. The quiet, winding highway is the perfect place to take your road bike or motorcycle. For families looking for a camping trip, Martha Creek Provincial Park has equipped campsites with access to a dock, a boat ramp, and a playground. Further up the lake, a number of more rustic campsites and hiking trails will offer a chance to kick back in a quiet setting and take it all in.

Lake Revelstoke

A completely under-utilized paradise, Lake Revelstoke (above the Revelstoke Dam on Highway 23 North) is perfect for a day of flat water canoeing, stand up paddleboarding, or kayaking. There are many areas to explore, including paddle- up waterfalls. The water is cold but the views are amazing! The Selkirk Mountains dominate the views on the east side of Lake Revelstoke and the Monashee Mountains on the west side.
